Possibly the most controversial story yet from best-selling author, D.W. Ulsterman. RACE WARS is an apocalyptic survival thriller that details the spread of brutality across the United States as a once-proud nation is ripped apart by racial division and self-serving politicians unwilling to quell the violence they themselves helped to create. It is a frightening tale many believe could happen, and some believe WILL happen. If so, are you fully prepared to defend family and friend from a world gone mad?
