

We Got Hood Love

If we gonna give it up, we might as well be getting paid for it anyway. Living in the projects in Brooklyn, Trina wants a better life; and thats exactly what she proposes for her and her friends. Trina, a single mother of 3 is a boss and wants nothing less than the best. No longer playing the role of the side piece, she knows the power of the cookie and plans to use it to get herself out of the projects. All she sees is the come up; but love has a way of finding her in a form she doesnt expect. Can she still be a boss and have this new found love? Quita has had more than her share of bad luck when it comes to men and money. Tired of stripping, all she wants, is to be able to live the lifestyle that she deserves and take care of her kids. She wants the same as Trina but just cant seem to stay away from the bad elements, and decides to take what doesnt belong to her. Can she have it all? Or will her schemes get her in something shes not ready for? Mya is a hard working upper class Valley girl that wants for nothing; except a man thats faithful. Growing up in the suburbs, Mya always found herself straying to the thugs. Giving up everything, Mya finds herself fighting to keep up with her man more than she can handle. Despite all the hurt, she just cant let him go; until the unexpected happens and Mya is forced to do the unthinkable to save face. But her scheming ways are bound to catch up with her, sooner than she thinks. These three women all want the same thing, love and happiness. But under all the secrets can happiness truly be obtained? Or will it only further prove that you can take the girl out the hood, but you cant take the hood out the girl?
